

UNIVERSITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

San Francisco State University
San Francisco, CA

Entry Level/Lateral POLICE OFFICER

Closing Date: Open until filled

The San Francisco State University Police Department is looking for energetic, dynamic individuals interested in working in a challenging atmosphere. A career in a community-oriented law enforcement agency can be yours if you meet the challenge. Police Officers at San Francisco State University are responsible for patrolling the University and surrounding areas on foot, bike, motorcycle or squad car to protect University students, faculty and staff from crimes against persons or property. We enforce all State and Municipal laws, apprehend and arrest violators and provide crime prevention seminars. Police Officers conduct investigations related to assigned cases within the course and scope of the University, California and Federal laws.

Salary: $3,788-$4,549 (negotiable depending on experience) plus $100 Special Assignment Stipend Pay and Up to $250 monthly for P.O.S.T. Intermediate and Advanced Certificates.

Other Benefits: 13 Paid Holidays Plus two weeks paid vacation per year to start; Comprehensive health plans with low or no premium costs for employee & family; Fee waiver program for University employees and dependents; Shift Differential; Uniform Allowance; 3/12 schedule; PERS Public Employees Retirement 3% @ age 50.

Skills: Effective interpersonal and communication skills; ability to think and act effectively in emergency and sensitive situations; learn quickly and apply specific University rules and regulations; prepare clear/concise reports; relate to and be able to gain the confidence and cooperation of members of the campus community.

Immediate assignment to the position once recruitment process is completed.

Minimum Qualifications:

- * U.S. citizenship or eligibility
- * Ability to meet CSU medical standards
- * Possess a high school diploma or equivalent
- * Possess a California Drivers License
- * California POST Certificate preferred
- * Pass a P.O.S.T Background Check

Obtaining an Application

Applications may be obtained online at <http://www/sfsu.edu/~dps> or by calling Captain Amalia Borja at (415) 338-6035.

San Francisco State University and the SFSU Police Department is an Equal Opportunity/American with Disabilities Act employer and has a strong commitment towards the principles of diversity.